

Fact Sheet

For More Information contact:

Jessica McCarihan, 773-575-9673 jessica@anewdirectionbmp.org

Monica Carey, 773-253-7226
monica@anewdirection.org

Name: A New Direction Beverly Morgan Park (AND)

What: A New Direction Beverly Morgan Park (AND) is a domestic violence agency providing community based support to individuals and families in need. These services are provided at no cost to the client. AND's professional staff includes a certified domestic violence professional and legal advocate with over 30 years of experience and an experienced children's therapist.

Location: A New Direction Beverly Morgan Park (AND) has no geographical boundaries but primarily serves victims living in the southwest side of Chicago and the surrounding suburbs.

Sponsor: A New Direction Beverly Morgan Park is a 501c3 not-for-profit organization serving the community since 2011.

Type: Domestic violence agency whose services include: Legal Advocacy, Children's Counseling, Resources, Support, Education and Referrals.

Events: Annual Benefit, Work Out To Wipe Out Domestic Violence, Sunday Funday BBQ

Community Outreach: Presentations about domestic violence and dating violence at local schools, local businesses, and churches; Committee involvement with Chicago Says No More

Executive Team: a Board of Directors governs A New Direction Beverly Morgan Park

President: Jessica McCarihan
Secretary: Nancy Lang McMorran
Treasurer: Sarah Peterson